NEWS RELEASE

Cape and Islands United Way Receives $25,000 Gift from Cape Cod Healthcare

Hyannis, MA- October 28, 2011 - The Cape and Islands United Way is pleased to announce a $25,000 gift from Cape Cod Healthcare. Officials from CCHC recently presented the gift to support the network of human service agencies and programs funded by the Cape and Islands United Way.

“We are grateful to Cape Cod Healthcare not only for this generous gift, but also for their confidence in our organization and its mission to increase the organized capacity for people to care for one another, said Richard Brothers, President of the Cape and Islands United Way. “A contribution of this size will make a significant impact in the funding we are able to provide to our safety net of agencies directly serving those in need.”

About the Cape and Islands United Way:

The Cape and Islands United Way is the largest non-governmental funder of human service programs on the Cape and Islands. We are a locally chartered, professionally managed, independently-governed organization with an all-volunteer board of local leaders. The Cape and Islands United Way seeks to be more than money to the community...building partnerships, forging consensus, and leveraging resources to make a measurable difference. Donations to the Cape and Islands United Way stay local ensuring your dollars help local people in need. “When you give here, it stays here.” For more information, call 508-775-4746 or visit www.uwcapecod.org.
